

La Ciotat, October 2016

The project H2O aims at improving the eGo project by adding a set of new functionalities such as:

- System in Package evaluation for proposing a fast seed phase and address the mass production concerns
- A mature full remote personalization of the whole platform including the embedded secure element.
- The online verification of applets for the embedded secure element
- a set of new peripherals (ie. sensors and actuators)